

Is your home LEAD safe?

Are there items in your home that contain lead?
Use the checklist below to find out.

1. Makeup

Imported beauty products from Asia, India and Africa may contain lead, including, Sindoor, Khol, Kajal and Surma.

2. Glazed Pottery

Items from other countries may contain lead, even if bought within the United States.

3. Soil

Soil or dirt could be contaminated from lead-based paint or by living near an industrial factory, highway or mine.

4. Toys & Jewelry

Older toys or toys purchased in discount stores can contain lead, as well as costume or play jewelry.

5. Home Remedies

Home remedies or Ayurvedic remedies (Azarcon, Greta, Pay-loo-ah)

6. Spices & Candy

Imported candies (tamarindo, chili) or imported spices (turmeric)

7. Lead Crystal, pewter or porcelain

8. Does someone in the home have a job or hobby that involves lead?

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Car repair | <input type="checkbox"/> Hunting—using lead bullets |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Construction | <input type="checkbox"/> Fishing—using lead sinkers |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Painting | <input type="checkbox"/> Furniture refinishing |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Mining | <input type="checkbox"/> Stained glass |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Plumbing | <input type="checkbox"/> Indoor shooting ranges |

Childhood

LEAD POISONING PREVENTION

A PROGRAM OF THE KANSAS DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENT

Are you lead aware?

- Remember there is no safe level of lead in children.
- Reduce your risk by limiting your exposure to lead.
- Remove items from your home that may contain lead.
- Refrain from contact with potential lead sources.
- Reach out to your doctor for more information on blood lead testing.

